The Weekly News and Regiſter.

LONDON, FRIDAY, September 18, 1730. NUMB. XXIII.

To the AUTHOR of the WEEKLY-REGISTER.

SIR,

PRAY let the Public know the Errors of certain of your Brother Journaliſts. The Craftſman ſays Mr. Echard wrote the Roman Hiſtory in five Volumes: This is falſe. The Grub-Street ſays, that Mr. Hughes was the ſuppoſed Author of the three laſt Volumes of the Roman Hiſtory: This is likewiſe not true. The true Account of Mr. Echard's Writings is as follows: Viz. He wrote,

I. The Roman Hiſtory, for the Uſe of the D. of Glouceſter, in two Volumes, 8*vo*. Many Years after, his Plan was purſued by Thomas Scot, Eſq; in a third Volume of the Roman Hiſtory, of which Mr. Echard approved, and declared his Intentions of giving up the farther Proſecution of it to Mr. Scot, who compleated the Work in a fourth and fifth Volume.

II. Mr. Echard's other Works are: 1. The Gazetteer: Or, Newſman's Interpreter for Europe. [But the Second Part, for Aſia, Africa, and America, was the Performance of another Hand.] 2. A ſmall Compendium of Geography. 3. He publiſhed a Tranſlation of Terence's and three of Plautus's Comedies. 4. He publiſhed alſo, a ſmall Claſſical Dictionary; and likewiſe wrote a very remarkable Introduction to Father Orleans's Hiſtory of the Revolutions of England, under the Family of the Stuarts; Tranſlated by Capt. Stevens. 5. He publiſhed, a few Years ago, a Hiſtory of the Revolution in 1688, being a Supplement to what he had wrote of that Period in his Hiſtory of England. And Laſtly, He was, at the Time of his Death, continuing his Hiſtory of England, to the Death of K. George I.

" By Way of Frankfort we have the following Tranſcript of " a Letter, bearing Date Auguſt 16. N. S. from Palermo " in Sicily: Viz."

YEſterday, being the Aſſumption of the Bleſſed Virgin, and according to Cuſtom, a Day of Joy and Feſtivity with us (alas) proved to us a Day of Deſolation! As our Grand Proceſſion, which is made every Year out of this City, on this Anniverſary, was returned back, a terrible Fire broke out at a Houſe in the High-Street; and as proper Means could not immediately be procured, to extinguiſh the Flames, and the Wind blowing very ſtrong, the neighbouring Houſes, and afterwards many more took Fire, ſo that the Buildings between the Vienna-Gate and the Arſenal were all laid in Aſhes; among which were the College of Jeſuits, and the great Tower, in which laſt the Bells were melted by the Vehemence of the Heat. The Church of the Carmelites, and the Town-Houſe are alſo conſumed; but we had the good Fortune to ſave the Records. About Seven in the Evening the Magazine of the Royal Baſtion, in which were 400 Barrels of Powder, blew up with a moſt dreadful Noiſe, whereby not only Part of the Baſtion, but alſo a great Number of Buildings were demoliſhed, and many People periſhed in the Ruins. Soon after the Arſenal and all the Houſes about it blew up likewiſe; as alſo the ſmall Magazine, wherein were a great many filled Bombs, Carcaſſes and Grenadoes. The Magazine in the Lower-Town happily eſcaped, tho' it was in the utmoſt Danger. The Barracks for Soldiers, the Governor's Houſe, and that of the Corps du Guard, are alſo deſtroyed; and little remains in that Part, except the Cloiſter of Franciſcans, that of the Nuns of St. Cicilia, and the great Powder Magazine of the Baſtion of Leopold. The Wind was ſo very violent, that great Flakes, &c. of Fire were carried as far as the neighbouring Villages. The Damage occaſioned by this horrible Conflagration is inexpreſſible; the Governor alone having loſt to the Amount of at leaſt 20,000 Crowns in Plate and Moveables.

They write from Crief in Perthſhire, under Sept. 11. to this Effect. Saturday laſt, the Earl of Brodalbane and Ld. Glenorchy ſet out from Monzie, in a Coach and Six, on their Way to Taymouth a Seat of the ſaid Earl's, and travelled by the new Military Road, accompanied by Ld. Monzie, Gen. Wade and divers others.——There are 500 Soldiers at work on the new Road between this Place and the River Gray, who, ſince April, have finiſhed above 20 Miles, and are now working Northward beyond the Tay, thro' a Mountainous Country, ſcarce paſſable from the Number of Rocks and Bogs that lye in the Way. Lieut. Maclean, an Officer who commands the working Detachment from the Highland Companies, finding in the Vale of Glen Ammond, a Stone of a monſtrous Size, lying within the Line which marked out the Road, employed 30 Men with ſix Hand-ſcrews and other Inſtruments, to raiſe it up an End, which they with ſome Difficulty performed, it being nine Feet high, 25 Feet about, and computed to weigh about 30 Tons. When they had raiſed it, they found under a flat Stone of about two Feet Square, lying even with the Surface of the Ground, which when they took up, they diſcovered a hallow Cube, formed by ſquare Stones placed edge-ways, and filled with the Bones and Aſhes of a Humane Body, conſumed, as is ſuppoſed, by a Funeral Pile, there being ſeveral Pieces of burnt Wood mixed with the Bones; but whether this was a Roman or Daniſh Antiquity, is uncertain, ſince there was no Inſcription diſcovered: Some imagine it to be the latter, from the Situation of the Place, being within the Grumpion Mountains, ten Miles North of the Roman Camp of Ardoch, which is ſuppoſed to have been the moſt Northern Settlement of the Romans, in this Iſland, by Agricola in the Reign of the Emperor Domitian.

FRIDAY, September 11.

FROM Jamaica, under July 5, they write, that 100 White Men being ſent out againſt ſome fugitive Blacks, were all deſtroyed by thoſe Negroes; and that from March 24, 1729, to June 24, 1730, 11421 Hogſheads of Sugar had been exported from that Iſland, and 4631 Negroes brought in there from the Coaſt of Africa.——And from Antigoa we learn; that the Number of Negroes brought thither from the African Coaſts, from June 25, 1729, to June 25 laſt, is 2690.——But, under May 3 laſt, from Annamabo they aſſure us, that the Scarcity of Negroes is greater than has been known in many Years, occaſioned by the Inhabitants of the Sea-Coaſt, for many Leagues, being now ingaged in a bloody War with their inland Neighbours.

By the Expreſs juſt arrived from Spain, we are credibly informed, that the South-Sea Company have received the diſagreeable News of an Order having been ſent, from that Court, for the Viceroy of Peru, to cauſe the Fair for the Sale of the Goods ſent by the Galleons, which ſailed from Cadiz, June 16, to be held at Porto-Bello in October next; the Beneſit of which the Company's Goods in the P. Wm. (which falls down to Graveſend on Tueſday next) cannot poſſibly partake of. But it is hoped the Notice will prove ſo ſhort, as to prevent a Poſſibility of this Order having the Effect deſired by the Spaniards. Don Luis Beaufort, appointed to meaſure the ſaid Ship on the Part of Spain, has agreed to do it; for which End next Week he is to go on board her, with ſome of the Directors.

Wedneſday laſt, a Gentleman and two Ladies going to take Water at Deptford, the Gentleman fell over-board, and one of the Gentlewoman endeavouring to ſave him, fell in alſo; but ſeveral Boats being near, they were brought aſhore, put to Bed, and are like to do well.

Caſual. Laſt Tueſday Morn. Hen. Kelly, Apprentice to Mr. Terry, Shoe-Maker, near Great-Ruſſel-Street hanged himſelf, becauſe, truly, his Sweetheart refuſed to promiſe him Marriage next Chriſtmaſs, and reflected on him that he was born Illegitimate. He was buried laſt Night near St. Giles's Pound, with a Stake thro' his Body.—— We have alſo an Account of another hopeful Youth who, on being reprimanded by his Father and Unkle, for his Untowardneſs, (as may be preſumed) he, truly, whips a Piſtol from his Pocket and ſhot himſelf in the Breaſt, or Belly: I forget what became of him after. This Scene was acted at a Tavern.—— Now a certain Gilder, at Paris, went about his Buſineſs more deliberately than all this; for being found, on the 11th Inſt. N. S. dangling by the Neck, on a Tree in Bois des Vincennes, he had in his Pocket a Paper denoting who and what he was; and concluded; That if People knew the Reaſons which obliged him to come to that Extremity, they would be far from blaming him.

Rob. &c. Yeſterday, a Woman in Charterhouſe-Lane, ſent a young Girl, her Daughter, with a new Suit of Cloaths to a Gentlewoman in Lombard-Street, when a certain Female ſtopped her in Cheapſide, and gave her Two-pence to go into Milk-Street on an Errant for her, while ſhe held her Bundle and waited her Return in Bow-Church-Yard. Whether the good Gentlewoman liked her Two-penny Bargain too well to part with it, or was called away on any urgent Occaſion, I ſhall not determine; but certain it is, the poor Girl found only the Place where the Perſon who employed her had promiſed to ſtay till ſhe came back again.——One Night laſt Week, Mr. Hawkins, Watchmaker, was, by two Foot-pads, coming from Newington-Green, robbed of a Silver Watch, a Snuff-box, and 17*s.* It being near the Roſemary-Branch, he cried out, upon which one of them knocked him down, and beat him moſt inhumanly.—— And the ſame Night, ſome Rogues carried off from a Back Waſh-Houſe of the Rev. Mr. Burroughs, in Chiſwel-Street, a Copper and ſome Linnen; which is all they could make Prize of, being diſturbed by a neighbouring Groom who heard them at work: They got off over the Artillery-Ground Wall, leaving their Ladder.

Pref. The Hon. Col. Negus and —— Cornelius, Eſq; were, on Tueſday laſt, duely elected Bailiffs for Ipſwich: They carried it by 322 and 318 againſt 304 and 296; the other Candidates were Sir Wm. Barker and Jonathan Quintin, Eſqs.

Deaths. Died laſt Tueſday Morn. after a tedious Illneſs, Mr. James Read, firſt Clerk of the E. India Pay-Office.—— As did alſo the Wife of Joſ. Bankes, Eſq; Mem. of Parl. for Peterborough.——A few Days paſt, died, at Worth near Tivirton in Devonſhire, John Worth, Eſq; a Gentleman of great Note and Eſtate in thoſe Parts.——And laſt Night, died ſuddenly the Wife of Mr. John Dale in Warwick-Court, Holborn: She was ſeized with a Fit of Apoplexy as ſhe was ſitting at Supper.

SATURDAY, September 12.

The E. India Ships, Greenwich and Marlborough, now arrived in the Downs, came from St. Helena the 1ſt of July. They left there the Windham, which would ſail in a few Days after, waiting only to refreſh her Crew, many of whom had been very ill of the Scurvy, &c.

The ſaid Company's Sale is to commence the 29th Inſt. It begins with Pepper and other weighable Goods, and proceeds with ſuch PieceGoods as can moſt conveniently be got ready, of all which they will give public Notice.——They have likewiſe declared, that they will ſell no more than what is publiſhed in the Liſt, till March next, except what may arrive by the Wyndham, and except Pepper and Raw Silk, by that or any other Ships now expected home, of which they will give timely Notice; and alſo except damaged Goods, Goods uncleared, and Goods in private Trade.——That they will give timely Notice what Saltpetre they will ſell.——And that they will ſell no more Coffee, Pepper, nor Raw Silk, except as aforeſaid, till September, 1731.——Meſſrs Abr. Weſſel, Nath. Torriano, Philip Middleton, Rich Moreton, and Tho. Fytche, are nominated their Supercargoes for China.——N. B. Mr. Weſſel was one of their Supercargoes of the laſt Ships which arrived from China, and the Perſon who on his Arrival diſcovered their fraudulent Proceedings to the Directors; who we hear, are determined to proceed againſt them in Chancery.——Mr. Frederick Pique is appointed their Writer. The Supercargoes are not yet ſtationed, tho' the 13 Ships taken into their Service for this Year are ſtationed, as per Liſt; but James Naiſh, Eſq; who went out Chief Supercargo of laſt the Ships ſent to China, was to diſpatch thoſe Ships home for England, and to remain in China to tranſact the Company's Affairs there, procure Goods for theſe Ships which are now going, and preſide over their Supercargoes.

We hear, that againſt next Year a Houſe will be built in Hyde-Park, for his Majeſty.——Alſo that the Penſion granted by the Crown, for about 50 Years paſt, to the late Duke of Cleveland, will be continued to his Son the preſent Duke.

We likewiſe hear, that Duke Hamilton will oppoſe the Earl of Crawford at the Election of one of the 16 Peers of Scotland, in the room of the Earl of Seafield and Finlater, deceaſed.

And that the Earl of I'a will be made one of the Knights Brethren of the moſt Ancient Order of the Thiſtle.

It is alſo ſaid, that the Earl of Grantham is to have the late Duke of Cleveland's Blue Garter.

The Corpſe of Maurice Hunt, Eſq; who, as was obſerved, died lately on his Travels in France, is arrived in the River, in order to be interred at St. James's Church.

They write from Londonderry, that two of the Burgeſſes have been diſfranchiſed, and that on the 30th paſt, Wm. Richardſon and Geo. Vaughan, Eſqs; were elected in their Steads: That the Cheſt wherein the Charters, Records, &c. belonging to that City are kept, was the preceding Day brought to the Council-Chamber; and it is judged more of their Members will be diſfranchiſed.

Caſual. Wedneſday Even. Mr. Maſon, Diſtiller at Hammerſmith, going to row in a Boat on the Thames, fell over-board and was drowned in Chelſea-Reach.

Pref. Mr. Gearing, Attorney of Beaufort-Buildings, is appointed Clerk to the Commiſſioners for repairing the Roads between Hyde-Park-Corner and Hounſlow.——The Rev. Mr. Barber is preſented to the Rectory of Comb, and Vicarage of Hornham, in the Dioceſe of Sarum, within three Miles of Salisbury.——The Rev. Mr. Watts is preſented to the Vicarage of Billeſdon in the County of Leiceſter and Dioceſe of Lincoln.——As is the Rev. Mr. Salisbury to the Rectory of Newton, in the County of Bucks and Dioceſe of Lincoln.——Wedneſday laſt, the Rev. Dr. Waterland was inſtalled, at the Cathedral of St. Paul's, into the Archdeaconry of Middlesex, in the room of Dr. Althon, deceased.

Death. Yesterday between Three and Four Afternoon, having lain several Days speechless, died, in the 39th Year of her Age, the R. Hon Lady Eleanor, Viscountess Tyrconnel. She was the Daughter of Sir John Brownlow, Bart. who built the noble Seat of Belton in Lincolnshire. She married her Father's Nephew Sir John Brownlow (now Ld. Visc. Tyrconnel) and was Sister to the late Countess of Exeter, the late Lady Guildford, and the present Dutchess of Ancaster. His Lordship, on Notice of her Death, immediately set out for his House at Greenwich.

MONDAY, September 14.

Friday last, John Macdonald, who took up divers Goods in the Ld. Baltimore's Name (whom he had formerly served) stood in the Pillory in Piccadilly, pursuant to his Sentence at the late Sessions held at Hick's-Hall.

As did next Day at Noon Peter Vivian, a Foreigner lately come over, at the Royal-Exchange, pursuant to his Sentence at the last Sessions at the Old-Bailey, for Sodomitical Practices: This last was severely treated.

Yesterday the Returns made by the several Constables of St. Martin's in the Fields, of the Names of Proper Persons, who are qualified to serve on Juries, was fixed up at the Church Doors, pursuant to the Act of Parl. lately passed for the better Regulation of Juries: The like is to be done at the other Churches in that City and Liberty.——"An Example worthy Imitation."

We hear that the Obsequies of the late Duke of Cleveland will not be performed till the Arrival in Town of several of the Knights Companions of the most Noble Order of the Garter, who, are to assist at his Funeral.

Among the Crouds who daily flock to Mr. Arne's in King-Street, Covent Garden, to visit our American Guests, a certain Female had the Address, last Friday, to carry off his Indian Majesty's Sword Belt: But going to pledge her new-acquired Prize at a Pawn-Brokers, she was stopped. Tho' his said Majesty seemed not a little chagrined at the sudden Disappearance of his fine Belt, yet, on its being recovered, he gallantly and generously insisted, that the pilfering Damsel should be released; and his Request was granted.——She would, as I am told, have insinuated, that her sole Motive for purloining this Monarch's so-much-esteemed Ornament, was merely to satisfy her Longing for something appertaining to a King: But this Evasion would not pass Muster, since it evidently appeared, that she rather longed for some of our own Monarch's Coin; Why else should she run with it so speedily to the Pawn-Broker?

Deaths. Thursday last died, at his House at Clapham, Mr. Markwick, an eminent Watch-Maker at the Royal-Exchange: He left a good Fortune and fair Character. His Business, &c. devolves to his Son-in-Law, Mr. Markham.——Friday Night last died, at Kensington, the Rt. Hon. Eleanor Dowager Lady Willoughby of Parham, whose Jointure was 300l. per Annum.——Saturday Morn. died, at Canbury-House, Islington, Mr. Peter Jones, whose Kinsman and Name-sake Mr. Peter Jones of St. Mary-Axe, died the 7th of August last, and left him about 40,000*l*.——John Meredith, of Gowry in the County of Montgomery, Esq; died there lately in his 95th Year: He was Father to John Meredith, Esq; Surveyor-Gen. of the Duty on Houses, and Grandfather to John Meredith, Esq; Receiver-Gen. of the Taxes for five Welsh Counties, viz. Denbigh, Carnarvon, Merioneth, Montgomery, and Flint.——Yesterday Morn. died in the Lodge next the Meuse Gate, Charing-Cross, Mr. Thos. Phipps, Porter at the Gate there: The Place is in the Disposal of the R. Hon. Earl of Scarborough, Master of the Horse to his Majesty, and is reckoned one of the best Places in the Livery.

TUESDAY, September 15.

Last Night, Isabella Eaton, al. Gwinn, who keeps the Crown-Tavern in Sherrard-Street, St. James's (Sister to the noted Mary Harvey, al. Philips, al. Sinclear, al. Mac-caig, so often mentioned in several of our Registers) was committed to Newgate by Sir John Gonson, and eight more of the Westm. Justices, charged upon Oath to be Accessary to a Felony committed by one Mary Sullivan (a notorious Pickpocket) in stealing from Matthias Knigge, a German, a Pair of Diamond Ear-Rings, Value 25l. and for receiving, harbouring and concealing the said Sullivan, knowing her guilty of the said Felony, which is made a Capital Offence by an Act of the 5th Year of the late Q. Anne.——One Hearn, an Irishman, taken at the said Eaton's, al. Gwinn's House, reputed to be her chief Bully or Captain, and not being able to give any good Account of his Way of Living, but appearing to be a dangerous Fellow, was by the said Justices committed to Tothill Bridewell to hard Labour.

We hear, that Sir George Caswal, Governor, for the present, of the Welsh-Copper Company, lately made his Farewell Speech, at a Meeting of the said Company; and that the Shares of that Company have since considerably risen. And a new Election of another Governor (which is shortly to be made) will, it is not questioned, soon restore the Credit of the said Company.

From Walpole, in Suffolk, we hear of an excessive Storm of Rain on Wednesday last, with Thunder and Lightning, by which a Farmer's House and his Hay-Stacks, were fired, and soon laid in Ashes, with most Part of the Furniture, as also a Barn full of Corn; and a Man was struck down dead instantly.

From Cambridge, they write that they have not thought fit, in Regard to Decency, to comply with that Part of the Will of Dr. Green, deceased, as directed his Body to be anatomized, and his Skeleton to be set up in the Library there; and have on the contrary caused his Body to be interred.

From Dublin, under the 8th Inst. we learn, that four Persons whom they qualify young Gentlemen (tho' far from such by this Action, whatever Provocation they might have, tho' we hear not of any) so basely kicked, bruised and otherwise abused a Young Woman who keeps a Punch-House on College-Green, that they killed the Infant with which she was pregnant, and her own Life is utterly despaired of.

From the same Place they add, that a Pyrate Sloop, mounted with several Guns has been seen coasting between Scotland and the Isle of Man; and that his Majesty's Ship Port-Mahon was going in quest of her.

They also add, that the Price of Wool is of late so risen in the West of that Kingdom, that the said Commodity is hourly bought up in Dublin for those Quarters.

From Edinburg they write, the 7th Inst. that the Magistrates, &c. of that City, in order to discourage the Importation of Foreign Spirits, have unanimously agreed not to touch any but what are the Produce of Scotland.——They add, that the Night before, two Gentlemen found a Male Infant murdered and left in a Peruke Box in the Abbey Church-Yard. And that on the said 7th in the Morn. their Correction-House was purged, when 20 true-paced Ladies of the Game set out thence for Glasgow, in order for Transportation.

And from Holland we have Advice, that the Drawing of the present Utrecht Lottery is deferred till Monday, the 28th Inst. and that the Directors have resolved to begin Drawing then, or to make double Restitution to the Adventurers, as is confirmed by the Prints at Bridge's Coffee-House, Cornhill, where Tickets in that or the Hague Lottery may be procured, registered, or examined, and the Prizes discounted.

Reb. &c. Saturday last, the Reading Coach was robbed, near Twiford Turnpike, by a single Collector, very well mounted. Two Farmers arriving as he made off, pursued him towards Ockingham, and were within 100 Yards of him at the Turnpike there. They cried "Stop the Highwayman;" and he cried as loud, "I am pursued by Rogues:" By this Stratagem he got thro'; but in such Confusion, that he left his great Coat, and scoured on towards London. — The same Day, the Bath Coach was robbed about Hounslow-Heath coming to London, by one Highwayman.——Sunday Night last, Tho. Rivers, or Reaves, was sent to Newgate, and Jos. Cornwall, or Comewell, was Yesterday removed from New-Prison to the same Place, and also a third Accomplice was committed to the Gatehouse, all for robbing Mr. Fenwick of Burr-Street, St. Catherine's, of Plate and other Effects to near 200l. Value. — And [Mem. not to forget the celebrated Mrs. Eaton, as above] a very incorrigible Fellow, namely, Dennis Cornish, who three or four Days since was turned out of Newgate, was Yesterday, by the Ld. Mayor's Order, reconducted thither: His last Offence was only borrowing a Handkerchief.——Rich. Dawes, was, also by the Ld. Mayor's Order, sent Yesterday to Bridewell: His Offence was only a Fellow-feeling towards some of his Acquaintance who lye in Newgate for Transportation, particularly one Johnson, a Felon, whom he furnished with a good large Spring-Saw, with which he and many others, under the same melancholy Circumstance, would, thro' Fetters, Grates, Bolts, Bars, and what not, have possibly cut out their Deliverance from their present Tribulation; but were timely prevented.

Pref. The Rev. Dr. Rocheblave, Chaplain in Ordinary to his Majesty, and Primier Chaplain to the R. Hon. Ld. Harrington, was Yesterday sworn in Preacher to the French Chapel-Royal at St. James's, to which is annexed a Salary of 160l. per Ann. from the King.——The Rev. Mr. John Wells is presented to the Rectory of Coulton, in the County of Norfolk and Diocese of Norwich.

Deaths. Lately died, at Dublin, the Hon. Lady Handcock, Wife of James Forth, Esq; Secretary to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Revenue in the Kingdom of Ireland.——As did also, near Tullamore in King's-County there, Dr. Rich. Hoyle, Anatomy-Lecturer in the College of Dublin. —Friday last, died Mr. Nichols, a very eminent Wholesale Leather-seller in Leadenhall-Street.——As did, next Day, in Bedford-Row, the Lady of Sir John Hartop, Bart. She was a Daughter of Sir Joseph Wolfe, and had been long indisposed.—Sunday died, at South-Lambeth, after a four Days Illness, Mr. James Walters, a noted Wine-Merchant of Canon-Street.——And Yesterday died, at her House in Charter-House Square, of a dead Palsy, Mrs. Westfield, a Widow Gentlewoman of considerable Fortune.

WEDNESDAY, September 16.

The last Letters from Cadiz import, that the 20th of last Month, the three Azogues, or Quicksilver Ships, commanded by Commodore Don Rodrigo de la Torre, sailed thence for New-Spain.

Some fresh Advices from Poland assure us, that the Plague is making terrible Havock on the Turkish Frontiers towards Caminiek, insomuch that the Bassa of Choczim is retired thence to a Place near Fort Trinity, belonging to the Poles, who are using all possible Care to prevent the Contagion from entering their Country.

Abr. Stanyan, Esq; his Majesty's late Embassador at the Ottoman Court, is expected here, the Beginning of next Month from Constantinople.

We hear, that Sir Cha. Hotham, Bart. will soon be remanded to the Court of Prussia. And that a Solemn Embassy will also be sent to the Court of Spain.

Mr. John Pare, Master of the Mary-Snow, of Plymouth, writes thence, the 7th Inst. that in his Passage thither from San Lucar, at about 20 Leagues Distance from Ushant, he met three Algerine Corsairs, of 50 Guns and 500 Men each, who ordered him to hoist out his Boat and send them his Pasport, which having done and the same being examined in all the Ships (which Examination, &c. took up some Hours) he was dismissed.

This Morn. several of the South-Sea Directors set out for Gravesend, with Don Luis Beaufort, who is to measure their Ship P. William, bound for Cartagena and Porto-Bello; which Measurement appearing agreeable to the Desire of the Spaniards, it is hoped will be thought sufficient, and save them the Trouble, &c. of measuring her again in New-Spain.

We hear, that Ld. Harrington has purchased Ld. Chetwynd's House in St. James's Park; and that his Ldship will reside there when the Court returns from Windsor.

Saturday last the new Church at Limehouse was consecrated by the Bp. of London. The Rev. Mr. Lachybourne, who preached the Sermon, is to be Rector, and the Rev. Mr. Ridley, Minister of Popler, who read Prayers, is to be Lecturer of the said Church.

Casual. Yesterday Morn. was found drowned in Rosamond's Pond the Widow Miles, who kept the Black-Horse Alehouse in College-Street, Westm. It is said she had been under Discontent of Mind for some Time on account of her Decay of Trade, and having two young Children unprovided for; and what added to her Affliction was, that a Man was lately cleared by the Insolvent Act, who was indebted to her 40*l.* and had been with her since, and behaved to her in a most insolent and unbecoming Manner.

Rob, &c. Monday Night last, James Rogers was committed to Newgate for robbing a Person in Bishopsgate-Street, of 12*s.* and his Hat.——Benj. Clerk was Yesterday committed to Wood-Street Compter, for robbing Mrs. Mary Mayor of Wearing Apparel to a considerable Value.——Yesterday Sir John Gonson and the Committee of Justices met at Covent-Garden Vestry, and examined several idle and disorderly Persons apprehended late the Night before, on Search Warrants, at the Night-Houses in and near Drury-Lane, and some of them being known to be old Offenders, were committed to Bridewell, to hard Labour, and the rest discharged: Rob. Camel and Hen. Fairbank were also committed to Bridewell, they belonging to a Gang of sad Fellows, who nightly infest those Precincts; and under Pretence of regaling the Ears of the Parishioners with what they call Music (tho' most execrable Crowding, and the like) they frequently assault, knock down and rob People in the Streets, and are a great Terror and Nusance to all sober Persons.——John Pavier, a Soldier of the Foot Guards, was also committed for threatening to kill the Constables, when they were, Monday Night last on their Duty in executing a Search Warrant.

Pref. The King has been pleased to promote Dr. Edw. Tenison, one of his Majesty's Chaplains in Ordinary, to the Bishoprick of Ossory, in the Kingdom of Ireland, vacant by the Death of the late Bishop, Sir Tho. Vesey, Bart.——Major Fran. Leighton, of Brig.-Gen. Barrell's Reg. of Foot, is appointed Major to Col. Handasyde's Reg. of Foot, and Capt. of a Comp. in the same, in the room of Major Sleigh, deceased: And also to appoint Wm. Hook, Esq; to be Major to Brig. Gen. Barrell's Reg. of Foot, and Capt. of a Comp. in the same, in the room of the said Fran. Leighton, Esq;

Deaths. The 16th Inst. N. S. died, at S. Germain en Laye, aged 84, the Lady Sophia Bulkeley, Mother-in-Law to the Duke of Berwick. She was Daughter of the Duke of Richmond, who died Embassador in Denmark, A. D. 1672, and Relict of Hen. Bulkeley, Esq; younger Brother of Robert Ld. Visc. Bulkeley of Cashel in the Kingdom of Ireland.——Last Week died the Rev. Mr. Wright, who succeeded the late Mr. Kennersley (who was Minister of the Minories) in his Living in Suffolk of 300*l. per Annum*.——As did Yesterday, at his House in Charter-House Square, Dr. Cha. Beal, Fellow the Royal College of Physicians, Physician to the Charter-House, and Fellow of the Royal Society. The Salary, said to be pretty considerabe, is in the Gift of the Governors of the Charter-House.

THURSDAY, September 17.

From Edinburgh, under the 10th Inst. they write, that a few Days before one Archibald Campbell (who rode about the Country as a Chapman) was apprehended at Kirkintullock in Dumbartonſhire, ſix Miles from Glaſgow, on a violent Suſpicion of his having counterfeited, forged or uttered the 20s. Notes of the Bank of Scotland, (as lately advertiſed) and on Friday laſt he was brought to Edinburgh, and committed to cloſe Confinement, by Warrant of Lord Juſtice Clark: He has ſince been twice examined by his Lordſhip, but we cannot yet tell what Diſcoveries are come out: It ſeems he had diſtributed ſeveral forged Notes at Linlithgow a few Days before, and there were actually 28 Notes of this new Manufacture found upon him when ſeized: One John Campbell, a Goldſmith in Glaſgow, Brother to the above Archibald, has ſince been taken into Cuſtody on the ſame Account, by his Lordſhip's Warrant, and cloſely confined. Poſtſcript to a Letter, dated at James-River in Virginia, July 30, 1730.

We have at this Inſt. an Account of an Inſurrection of the Negroes about Williamsburgh, occaſioned by a Report of Col. Spotſwood's Arrival, that he had Direction from his Majeſty to free all baptized Negroes; many Maſters and Miſtreſſes having baptized their Slaves, in order to inſtruct them in the Chriſtian Faith: The People of Diſtinction took Notice of this, and the Negroes had improved it to a great Height: It is ſaid ſome of the Ringleaders are taken: Five Counties are in Arms purſuing others, with Orders to kill them if they do not ſubmit.

Letters from Genoua of the 12th Inſt. N. S. are very poſitive, that the King of Spain has conſented to ſuſpend his intended Expedition to Italy till next Spring: And in a Letter from Leghorn, dated the 9th Inſt. N. S. is the following Paragraph.——Viz. I have Advice from Paris, of the 28th paſt, that the King of Spain, by Perſuaſives from the King of France, will not make any Motion this Year with the Preparations at Barcelona for an Expedition to Italy. And from thence it is inferred, that Cardinal Fleury may ſucceed in the Concluſion of a General Peace before next Spring. As the preſent Appearance is, his Imperial Majeſty inclines to hearken to ſome new Propoſals, whereto alſo his Catholic Majeſty would adhere, upon Condition of a certain Marriage, which would certainly ſecure the Tranquillity of Europe.

N. B. " As to what regards the Italian Expedition's be" ing ſtopped for this Seaſon, it ſeems to be confirmed by
" all our lateſt Advices from Barcelona, Alicante, Cadiz,
" &c. ——What farther confirms it is what they write
" from Barcelona, under the 9th Inſt. N. S. viz. That
" Orders are arrived there for the immediate Departure of
" the 18 Spaniſh Men-of-War, which, they affirm, are to
" Winter at Cadiz."

A fine Monument is erected in Clapham Church, near that of his Wife's, to the Memory of Dr. Martin Liſter, a generous Benefactor to that Pariſh, for whom a Sermon is preached annually on the firſt Sunday in Auguſt, purſuant to his laſt Will and Teſtament.——And in the ſaid Church-Yard, a fine Tomb, incloſed with very curious Iron-work, is finiſhed near the Place of Interment, in Memory of W. Lethieullier, Eſq; formerly an eminent Turky Merchant, and Father of Sir Rich. Hopkins's Lady, Knt. and Ald. of London.

Yeſterday the Court of Directors of the E. India Company appointed Mr. Crabb Aſſiſtant to Mr. Spencer, in the Pay-Office, in the room of Mr. Read, deceaſed.——At the ſame Time they reſolved, that the Tea in private Trade, brought by the Ships lately arrived from China, ſhall be ſold at their enſuing Sale, which commences the 29th Inſt.

We hear, that Dr. Bamber, F. R. S. Surgeon to the Charter-Houſe, who was lately preſented to the Degree of Dr. of Phyſic, by the Univerſity of Cambridge, will decline his Surgeon's Place, and ſtand Candidate for Phyſician to the ſaid Houſe, in the room of Dr. Beale, deceaſed, at the next Election.

Commodore Stuart, with the Squadron under his Command, is ordered home from the Mediterranean.

Their Excellencies Meſſrs Walpole and Pointz are hourly expected here from France. The former freighted the Middleton, Capt. Fra. Pemberton, at Rouen, to bring over his Baggage, &c. to Clye in Norfolk, a Port within four Miles of his Seat.

Tueſday Night laſt, Mr. James Watſon, Printer, was taken into Cuſtody of two of his Majeſty's Meſſengers, for printing a Pamphlet, intitled, Proteſilaus; or, The Character of an Evil Miniſter. Written at Paris by Mr. Cha. Forman, and Dedicated to Sir Rob. Walpole.——And at Paris, M. L'Abbé de Nivelle has been apprehended and committed to the Baſtile; a Box full of Prohibited Papers having been taken upon him; and a Preſs was ſeized at a Sword-Cutler's, which ſerved to print ſuch Papers.

Rob. &c. Laſt Tueſday Even. two Gentlemen of Doctors-Commons, a Doctor and a Proctor, were robbed near Tottenham by one Highwayman, mounted on a Black Mare, as they were coming in a Coach to London.——And the ſame Even. Mr. Aſton of Goodman's-Fields, with his Wife, were attacked, in their Chaiſe, coming from Cheſſunt, by three Foot-Pads, near Edmonton, who took from them 14*s.* a Watch, and a Silver Snuff-Box.

Prof. Brig. Gen. Du Bourgay has, we hear, obtained a Promiſe of the Government of Portſmouth, vacant by the Death of Lieut. Gen. Macartney.——Tueſday laſt, a Committee of the Commiſſioners for Q. Anne's Bounty, met at the Lottery-Office, Whitehall, in order to elect a Perſon in the room of Mr. Elton, Regiſter, deceaſed; and Mr. Barker was choſen——Ald. Wiſe, of Oxford, was, on Monday laſt, choſen Mayor of that City, for the enſuing Year.

Mar. Laſt Week, Mr. Granning, Gardiner to his Majeſty at Richmond, was married to Miſs Marſh of Hammerſmith, a young Gentlewoman of great Beauty and Merit, and a 2000*l.* Fortune ——Sunday laſt Mr. Newport, a young Gentleman of 5 or 600 l. per Ann. Eſtate in Hertfordſhire, having fallen in Love with a young Damſel, Servant at a Gilt-Houſe in Devereux-Court, without Temple-Bar, married her very honourably, and ſettled on her 100*l.* a Year Jointure.

Deaths. A few Days paſt, died Hen. Ludlow, Eſq; one of the Benchers of the Middle-Temple, in his 77th Year: And is to be buried with great Solemnity, at Bramly near Guildford in Surrey. The Pall is to be ſupported by the Ld. High Chancellor, the Ld. Onſlow, the Ld. Middleton, the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons, Sir Moore Molyneux, and Ant. Allen, Eſq; one of the Maſters of Chancery.——Tueſday laſt died the Wife of Major Aſcough, in Red-Lyon-Street, and is to be interred, next Saturday, at St. Bennet's Grace-Church-Street, where her Daughter had been buried a few Weeks ago; whoſe Death ſhe ſo regretted, that it is thought actually to have broke her Heart.——The ſame Even. died Dr. Farthingham, at his Lodgings in Pall-Mall. ——As did alſo the ſame Night Mr. John Hooke, a noted Book-Seller in Fleet-Street.——From Madraſs we are aſſured of the much-lamented Death of that moſt deſerving Young Gentleman, Mr. Geo. Vereſt, which happened in his Way to China.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Arrived Mails.——Thurſday; one from France.——Sunday; one from Holland.——Tueſday; one from France. ——Wedneſday; one from France.——Thurſday; one from Holland.

Leghorn, Sept. 2, Our Letters from Naples and Sicily, are filled with Complaints of the Hardſhips the Inhabitants ſuffer from the Germans, who make Uſe of all Manner of Ways and Means to raiſe Money. But from Rome it is the Reverſe, the Conduct of the new Pope being highly applauded. Our Court ſeems now to be uneaſy, more on Account of the great Number of German Troops which ſurround our Borders, than from any Apprehenſion of Danger from Spain. But the Merchants have already ſuffered very ſeverely by the Stagnation of Trade, and many ſell their Goods for what they can get, in order to prevent their being a Prey to the Soldiers, in Caſe of a Rupture, the Fear of which is very great. ——We hear that the Republic of Genoua, to give Satisfaction to the Malecontents of Corſica, and put an End to the Troubles that lay Waſte the Iſland, will conſent to aboliſh all the Offices and Impoſts of which the Corſi complain; on Condition, however, that they ſhall furniſh the neceſſary Subſidies for the Maintenance of the Governor of the Iſland, the Miniſters of Juſtice, and the Garriſons. Upon Advice, that the Inhabitants of Final ſhew ſome Inclination to raiſe freſh Troubles in that Place, two Gallies are put to Sea from Genoua, with 350 Men, to reinforce that Garriſon, and keep the People quiet. Baron Molck, Agent from the Emperor, is ſtill at Florence, to ſettle with the Grand Duke's Commiſſaries the Quarters of the German Troops who are to enter that Dutchy: But we are told, his R. Highneſs has declared, that he will not receive any of them, unleſs it ſhould appear that the Spaniards deſign to introduce their Troops by Force.——However the Preparations of the Spaniards fail not to alarm us, notwithſtanding we are told there will be no Rupture this Year; and the Seaſon advancing, induces us to come into this Opinion. However, the Engliſh Merchants are diligently packing off the moſt conſiderable of their Effects for Venice, and to other Places.——Orders are juſt come from Court to ſend a Reinforcement of 800 Men to Port-Ferrajo.

Alicante, Aug. 30. As yet the Captains who were taken up in the Tranſport Service have not received any more Money, and God knows when they will, tho' the Prince gives them great Hopes of giving them another Month's Pay in a few Days; but in caſe he complies with that, we fear we ſhall have Trouble enough to recover the Remainder, and perhaps never. All Things are at a Stand, and what it will come to, Time muſt diſcover.

Cadiz, Aug. 29. The Fleet of Tranſports ſailed laſt Night for Barcelona. The Court ſtill remains at Seville; and when they will ſet out for Port St. Maria is uncertain. It is ſaid the King is very much indiſpoſed. We are in daily Expectation of Orders for delivering the Effects from on board the Flotilla; and it is the Opinion here, that the Indults will be no more than 5 per Cent. It is believed that another Flota will be diſpatched next Year for New-Spain. The Expedition goes on but ſlowly; and it is thought that it will not take Place; but that ſome Accommodation is on Foot between the Contending Powers.

Extract of a Private Letter from Paris; bearing Date Sept. 18. N. S.

Whatever may be her Catholic Majeſty's real Plan, or Scheme, I ſhall not offer to determine, this Subject being ſo variouſly handled. But our Advices from the Spaniſh Court aſſure us of Marquis Spinola's Diſgrace, and that the Command of the Italian Expedition (whenever it be ſet on Foot) is conferred on Marquis Risburg. That General's Diſgrace is attributed to certain Information her ſaid Majeſty has received of his having too much given into the Views of Cardinal Fleury; and that what occaſioned his loitering ſo long in his Journey from Parie to Cazalla was purely that the Seaſon might be over for ſetting out on ſuch an Expedition: For being very well aſſured, that there were no Succours to be expected from the Allies, he knew he ſhould meet with unſurmountable Difficulties in the Execution of the Project, and that, in all Events, he was in extreme Danger of loſing either his Glory or his Prince's Favour; and ſo he choſe to ſacrifice the latter. The News of the King of the King of Sardinia's Abdication founded the Alarm here for a while; but we have pretty well recovered it, tho' the Emperor may poſſibly reap ſome Advantage from it. The new King having been formed by his Father to the Affairs of the Government for ſix Years paſt, ſo as to have had the ſole Direction of them privately and in a Cabinet, he will undoubtedly follow his Maxims, and purſue the Scheme concerted between them, before the Abdication, as proper in the preſent Juncture of Affairs. Thus it will be with this Prince, perhaps, as it was with Duke Lewis, who had Couriers continually upon the Road to Ripaille to conſult his Father Amadeus VIII. who had reſigned the Government to him, but governed notwithſtanding more than Lewis did, from the Receſſes of his Hermitage.——On the other Hand, Europe and Cardinal Fleury's Scheme may poſſibly reap ſome Advantage from his Abdication; becauſe the Moment King Phillip hears the News, all his Ideas of that Sort will revive, and the Queen will have enough to do to perſuade him to defer it, animated as he will be by ſo glaring an Example.

By our lateſt Letters from Turin we learn, that his late Sardinian Majeſty now aſſumes only the Title of Count De Tende; and that he has declared his ſecond Marriage with the Counteſs-Dowager of S. Sebaſtian, now ſaid to be in her 50th Year, and not Lady of Honour to the late Queen, but Dreſſing-Gentlewoman to her preſent Sardinian Majeſty, then Princeſs of Piedmont.

N. B. " The preſent Prince of Piedmont is not as was ſaid,
" the new King's Son by his firſt Princeſs; that young
" Prince dying in 1725: But he is the Son of the now
" Queen, and was born June 26, 1726. Their Majeſties
" have alſo three Daughters."

The Carpenter cut loose the Boat which floated on the Deck, a Cask of Water and a Shoot or small Hog being at Hand were put into her which was their only Subsistance for 7 Days before Cap. Spark took them up. They had neither Book or Instrument to direct any Course, having no Mast or Sail, they made a Mast of an Oar, and a Sail of their Jackets and Trowsers; and about an Hour and half after leaving the Ship they saw her sink: One white and two black Men were drowned. Besides several Parcels of Goods, the Particulars whereof are not yet known.

The America, Capt. Hicks, from Nevis, which arrived in the Downs on Saturday last, had lost her Main and Fore-Masts: She had on board 22 Men, which they took up at Sea out of a Boat that belonged to the Cæsar, Capt. John Sibson, who failed from Cadiz the 5th of July for New-England, but foundered at Sea: These Men were taken up after the America had lost her Masts.—— The May-Flower, Capt. Stubbs, which is arrived from Jamaica, in or near the Gulph spoke with a Spanish Sloop, from whom they were informed, that the Levantine, Capt. Thomas, bound also from Jamaica for London, was lost upon a Rock near the Island of Pines, on the South-Side of Cuba.— The Queen Caroline, Capt. Webb, (formerly the Queen Elizabeth, Capt. Crichton) bound from London to the Coast of Africa, was lately lost near the River of Senegal. Capt. Webb is returned in the African Company's Sloop Bonetta, by whom we learn, that an English Ship, bound from Lisbon to Cachen, (supposed to be the Diligence, Capt. Richardson) was lost at St. Jago, one of the Cape de Verd Islands.—A Pink was seen to be on Shore on one of the Capes of Virginia the 20th of July, but her Name or Voyage we have not been able to learn.
